

DEPUTY GRAND COUNCIL CHIEF ACTIVITY REPORT

September 2010 – March 2011

Chiefs Elders & Citizens

There have been a great many events, meetings, gatherings, speaking engagements where I have had the opportunity to meet with individual First Nation Citizens, Chiefs & Councils and the one common topic is the future of our Children.

Since the fall of 2010 we have been working on the Community Engagement Sessions, which we have presented to the Convention in March. We are now in the process of phase 2 which is to revisit individual communities and present the findings of the collective citizen's voices.

The Ottawa government has already passed a Matrimonial-Real Property law without our input, we the First Nations of this land have a right to be consulted; we need our own Constitution laws in place so that each First Nations would Governance involves a wide array of areas, our Language, our Traditional Teachings, Anishinabek Child-Welfare Laws, Jurisdiction in Education, Citizenship, Health & Social issues, Harvesting, Treaty Rights. It is time for us to move forward, to control our future; we cannot let others make laws that affect our Future Generations.
