RALLY

Victoria Island to Parliament Hill

Ottawa, ON

January 24th, 2012

Time (TBA)

The Unity Rally will begin at Victoria Island where we will march to the Gathering Place on Parliament Hill. This is a peaceful demonstration staged to send a strong united message to the federal and provincial governments that First Nations stand with their leadership!

Please join us!

First Nations – Communities are asked to bring their flags and other communication material (poster board/t-shirt etc.) which support the First Nations position and key messages. All are encouraged to bring their drums and to wear their traditional regalia. Please contact Nathan Wright at the coordinates if you are coordinating buses so we get an estimate on numbers.

Buses – First Nations in Ontario are being asked to organize buses for their citizens to participate in this rally. Buses will be able park in the parking lot off of Commissioner Rd. It's about a 20 minute walk from the parking lot to Parliament Hill . (Please see our website for a detailed map)

Security – Marshal's will be wearing red arm bands and will be available to assist with any questions and concerns. Also, please note the Ottawa Police Services will be on site for safety reasons. Marshals will also direct participants to public washroom facilities if needed.

For more information., please contact: Nathan Wright, Justice Coordinator
