

A Letter from Grand Council Chief

Aanii, Boozhoo Kina Waya!

The Anishinabek Nation will be celebrating Anishinaabe Giizhigad on June 6 to honour our Anishinaabe identity, history, traditions, pride, and most importantly, people!

Anishinaabe Giizhigad commemorates the proclamation of the Anishinaabe Chi-Naaknigewin and the adoption of the Ngo Dwe Waangizid Anishinaabe on June 6, 2012. By virtue of the Anishinabek Nation Leadership Council, June 6 was proclaimed as Anishinaabe Giizhigad [Anishinaabe Day] on November 17, 2021.

This year, the Anishinabek Nation will be celebrating Anishinaabe Giizhigad with host community Curve Lake First Nation where the event will be livestreamed on the Anishinabek Nation YouTube channel for all across Turtle Island to watch! We will be sharing in teachings, storytelling, and so much more!

Anishinabek Nation member First Nations will also be hosting Anishinaabe Giizhigad events within their communities – we look forward to seeing how the celebrations unfold!

Mno-waawiindandaa Anishinaabe Giizhigad - let's celebrate Anishinaabe Day!
